

Wish you were here!

Choose ONE image from below.

Use sensory detail to INTENSELY describe the image. Try to put your reader there! Your reader can't see the image, so you have to create it for them.

You must use

- personification
- metaphor
- simile
- alliteration
- onomatopoeia
- hyperbole
- and of course, sensory description (At least 4 of the 5 senses must be present).

You may not use the words: hear, touch, see, taste, smell, there, it, really, very, fun, scary, or any form of any of these words.

You are also NOT allowed to start a sentence with The.

Remember- You are not writing a story; you are writing a description.
